PLANNED PROGRAM · WASHINGTON, DC · HYBRID

International Relations & Diplomacy

International Relations & Diplomacy · School of Public Policy, Diplomacy & Humanitarian Studies

Training public servants, diplomats, and humanitarian professionals to lead with purpose.

A planned stackable pathway: begin with a professional certificate and build toward a diploma, a Bachelor of Public Administration (BPA) or Bachelor of Arts (BA), and an Master of Public Administration (MPA) or Master of Arts (MA). Learning is planned as a hybrid blend of online instruction, live virtual sessions and selected in-person activity in Washington, DC, built for working professionals and international learners.

Planned pathway and tuition

Credential	Planned duration	Credits	Planned tuition
Professional Certificate	3–6 months	Program-specific	$100 per credit-equivalent where applicable
Diploma	1 academic year	60	$100/credit, about $6,000
Bachelor of Public Administration (BPA) or Bachelor of Arts (BA)	3 academic years (accelerated hybrid)	120	$100/credit, about $12,000
Master of Public Administration (MPA) or Master of Arts (MA)	2 academic years	60	$300/credit, about $18,000

Planned instructional tuition only. Technology, administrative, learning-resource, student-services, graduation and other fees may apply and have not been published. All figures are planning estimates.

Concentrations

Diplomacy & Protocol. A focus track within International Relations & Diplomacy, planned as part of this program.

Foreign Affairs. A focus track within International Relations & Diplomacy, planned as part of this program.

Why study this at NBU

- Hybrid delivery for working adults and learners around the world.
- Stackable credentials so each step counts toward the next, subject to NBU's progression and transfer policies.
- Applied learning with projects and a capstone or applied project.
- Mentored internship planned from the first year with a mentor in your field.

Planned certificates and what you will be able to do

Certificate (3–6 months)	Learning outcome	Career application
International Relations Foundations	Explain core international-relations concepts	Foreign affairs support roles
Diplomacy & Protocol	Apply basic diplomatic protocol practices	Diplomatic support/protocol officer

Where this can lead

NBU's catalog associates the School of Public Policy, Diplomacy & Humanitarian Studies's planned programs with government agencies, international organizations, NGOs, diplomatic services, and policy research institutions. This is illustrative of program design intent only.

Admission at a glance

- Certificate: application, evidence of education, identification, program-specific requirements.
- Bachelor's: application, high school transcript or equivalent, identification, personal statement if required.
- Master's: bachelor's degree, transcripts, CV, statement of purpose, recommendations when required.
- International applicants: credential evaluation when required (WES or IEE) and English evidence if applicable (TOEFL, IELTS, Duolingo or prior study in English).

How to apply

Submit a pre-application at nationbuilderuniversity.com/apply.html or email admissions@nationbuilderuniversity.com. A pre-application records your interest; it is not an admission or enrollment. A non-refundable application fee applies: $50 (certificate, diploma, bachelor's) or $100 (master's, doctoral), paid through PayPal at nationbuilderuniversity.com/application-fee.html.

Important notice. Nation Builders University LLC is a privately organized institution of higher education under the laws of the District of Columbia. NBU is not currently licensed, accredited, approved, or authorized to confer degrees or to enroll students. This program is planned; credits, durations, tuition, requirements and schedules are planning information subject to regulatory approval and may change. Career information is illustrative only and is not a placement, salary or employment guarantee.