PLANNED PROGRAM · WASHINGTON, DC · HYBRID

Tourism & Aviation Management

Tourism, Aviation & Logistics Management · School of Service Operations & Global Hospitality

Developing professionals for careers across hospitality, tourism, and service industries worldwide.

A planned stackable pathway: begin with a professional certificate and build toward a diploma, a Bachelor of Science (BS), and an Master of Science (MS). Learning is planned as a hybrid blend of online instruction, live virtual sessions and selected in-person activity in Washington, DC, built for working professionals and international learners.

Planned pathway and tuition

Credential	Planned duration	Credits	Planned tuition
Professional Certificate	3–6 months	Program-specific	$100 per credit-equivalent where applicable
Diploma	1 academic year	60	$100/credit, about $6,000
Bachelor of Science (BS)	3 academic years (accelerated hybrid)	120	$100/credit, about $12,000
Master of Science (MS)	2 academic years	60	$300/credit, about $18,000

Planned instructional tuition only. Technology, administrative, learning-resource, student-services, graduation and other fees may apply and have not been published. All figures are planning estimates.

Concentrations

Tourism Management. A focus track within Tourism & Aviation Management, planned as part of this program.

Airline & Airport Management. A focus track within Tourism & Aviation Management, planned as part of this program.

Why study this at NBU

- Hybrid delivery for working adults and learners around the world.
- Stackable credentials so each step counts toward the next, subject to NBU's progression and transfer policies.
- Applied learning with projects and a capstone or applied project.
- Mentored internship planned from the first year with a mentor in your field.

Planned certificates and what you will be able to do

Certificate (3–6 months)	Learning outcome	Career application
Tourism Management Fundamentals	Plan a basic destination tourism program	Tourism coordinator
Airline Operations Essentials	Explain core airline operations procedures	Airline operations agent
Airport Management Fundamentals	Coordinate basic airport operations tasks	Airport operations coordinator

Where this can lead

NBU's catalog associates the School of Service Operations & Global Hospitality's planned programs with hotel and resort management, tourism, aviation, logistics, supply chain operations, and event or sports management. This is illustrative of program design intent only.

Admission at a glance

- Certificate: application, evidence of education, identification, program-specific requirements.
- Bachelor's: application, high school transcript or equivalent, identification, personal statement if required.
- Master's: bachelor's degree, transcripts, CV, statement of purpose, recommendations when required.
- International applicants: credential evaluation when required (WES or IEE) and English evidence if applicable (TOEFL, IELTS, Duolingo or prior study in English).

How to apply

Submit a pre-application at nationbuilderuniversity.com/apply.html or email admissions@nationbuilderuniversity.com. A pre-application records your interest; it is not an admission or enrollment. A non-refundable application fee applies: $50 (certificate, diploma, bachelor's) or $100 (master's, doctoral), paid through PayPal at nationbuilderuniversity.com/application-fee.html.

Important notice. Nation Builders University LLC is a privately organized institution of higher education under the laws of the District of Columbia. NBU is not currently licensed, accredited, approved, or authorized to confer degrees or to enroll students. This program is planned; credits, durations, tuition, requirements and schedules are planning information subject to regulatory approval and may change. Career information is illustrative only and is not a placement, salary or employment guarantee.